NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Speaker Letter.

Oh! the bells, bells, bells. Where did you get that sleigh?

C. Cooper, of Yale, made a business call in the village Monday.

Annie and Frank Reynolds called on friends in Yale Wednesday.

Charles Sloat attended the KOTM tent review in Yale Tuesday evening.

People seem to be making good use of the snow, judging from the amount of travel on the road.

Elder Hulbert has commenced revival meetings in the M. E. church. May success attend his efforts.

A large number of the YPSCE's attended the Endeavor meeting in Yale Monday evening and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

On Friday evening, January 25th, the Christian Endeavor Society of Yale and the CEU of the Baptist church will unite with our society in celebrating the 58th anniversary of Michigan's admission into the Union as a state. A fine program is being prepared. Each member will take an active part. We intend it shall be a meeting long to be remembered.

Brown City Letter.

Work has been resumed on the Menomonee church.

Cora Lutes and Mrs. A. Paisley were in Port Huron Saturday.

W. H. Bonfoy spent Saturday and Sunday with his family here.

Hattie Degroot is spending the week in Lynn, visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sutton.

Sadie Drennan is visiting friends in Dryden and Romeo. Sophia is attending the shop during her absence.

A number of the young people attended meeting in Lynn Tuesday evening and enjoyed a sleighride.

A social gathering at Andrew Brown's residence last Thursday evening was attended by a number of the young people.

A telegram was received by Wendell Clemens announcing the death of his son's wife, Mrs. J. N. Clemens, of New Dundee, Ont.

D. M. Robins, of Saginaw, gave a very eloquent temperance lecture in the M. E. church Sunday evening. On account of the inclemency of the weather he was not greeted with a very large audience.

The graduating class surprised Prin. Erwin Friday evening, January 11th, in honor of his birthday and presented him with a beautiful gold pen. After a sumptuous supper served in elegant style by Mrs. Erwin all departed having passed a very enjoyable evening.

Elliott Letter.

Will Locke, of Capac, visited with relatives in town last week.

A gentleman friend from Saginaw is visiting C. Feiger at present.

Charles Churchill, of Goodland, was in town on Tuesday buying sheep and hogs to ship to Buffalo.

Eva Hardy was taken to the poor house last week. It is far better for her and for several others.

John Walker and Myron Filmore started for the north woods with their teams the fore part of the week.

Jesse Winn and wife started last week for St. Clair where they will spend a week or two visiting with relatives and friends.

Minnie Colberg returned last week to her uncle Fred Colberg's. Minnie is attending the Bullock school under the instructions of H. P. Mowerson.

The LOTM of Lynn installed their officers last Friday. A lady from Port Huron did the work. Visiting members were present from Yale and Capac.

Sunday was a very stormy day. The east and west roads were so badly drifted with snow that it was necessary to shovel them out to make them passable.

Our town clerk contemplates taking a trip out West in the near future for a visit and also for the benefit of his health. It is said by some that he has another object in view, but John says that they are away off. It remains to be seen what he will do. John is an odd genius, can't tell where he will fetch up.

During the dry weather several farmers have been digging wells. Jim Edgerton is doing the work. He has dug wells for John Wilshire, John Kerk, and William Hoffman and we understand that C. Danielson is having one dug where his creek well is. Stone or drive wells are what a farmer wants. Now is the time to dig your wells. All the above have had good success.

Lynn township seems to have a great burden on its hands at present. It is reported that there is a crazy man within our borders to be taken care of. Our taxes are outrageously high this year. Taking everything into consideration we think it is about time the citizens were looking after their own interests and not let the county drain commissioner and other officers do as they please.

Points About Periodicals.

To those who are interested in good farming and stock-raising, The Canadian Live Stock and Farm Journal is becoming quite a boon. The cutting down of prices and bad times generally make it necessary for our agriculturists to exercise the greatest care in order to secure the proper returns for their labor, and The Canadian Live Stock and Farm Journal contains just the kind of information necessary to assist them in the work. The subscription price is one dollar per year, and an investment of this kind is one that should prove profitable. The Journal's address is 20 Bay Street, Toronto, Canada.

Something everybody wants, something all can get by securing a copy of Vick's Floral Guide for 1895, a work of art, printed in 17 different tinted inks, with beautiful colored plates. Full list, with description and prices, of everything one could wish for vegetable, fruit or flower garden. Many pages of new novelties, encased in a chaste cover of silver or gold. Unusual and astonishing offers, such as Sweet Peas for 40 cents a pound, $300,000 for a name for a New Double Sweet Pea, etc. If all interested in seeds or plants send 10 cents at once for a copy of Vick's Floral Guide, which amount may be deducted from first order, to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., and learn the many bargains this firm is offering.

Unlike too many periodicals which seem to exhaust themselves with their Christmas issue, The Art Amateur, maintaining its steady level of excellence, opens the new year with every indication that during 1895 the artist, art student, and art lover will find as useful a teacher as ever in this always practical magazine. One of the color plates for January is an exquisitely delicate reproduction of the profile of a beautiful woman by Albert Lynch; and there is a sunny landscape called "The Old Sugar House in the Woods" by D. F. Ha-brouck. Eight pages of practical and not too difficult Working Designs as usual are given for Wood-Carving, Embroidery, China and Glass Painting, Pyrography, etc., and there are many more working designs scattered through the profusely illustrated pages of the text. Among the practical articles are "Drawing for Reproduction," "Drapery upon the Human Figure," "Pen Work for Photo-Engraving," "Flower Drawing in Pen-and-Ink," "Figure Painting," "Designing for Lithographers," "The Abuse of Color," "Class Painting in Huitable Colors," numerous articles on China Painting, "Painting on Tapestry Canvases," "Hints for Amateur Metal-Workers," "The Care and Framing of Pictures," "A Mother's Bed-room," "Notes and Hints for Art Workers," "A Useful Book Case," and "Talks on Embroidery." Nearly all these articles are practically illustrated. The special artist for the month is William Adolph Bouguereau, numerous examples of whose work are shown, including a very fine double page wood-engraving of the famous "Voice of Spring." There is the first chapter of "An Art Student's Year in Paris," which will make an American girl long to join her, and the editor in his "Note Book" as usual gives some very valuable points to art connoisseurs as well as some timely cautions to those who would like to become connoisseurs. Price 35 cents. Montague Marks, Publisher, 23 Union Square, New York.

Without the Non-pull-out BOW (RING)

It is easy to steal or ring watches from the pocket. The thief gets the watch in one hand, the chain in the other and gives a short, quick jerk—the ring slips off the watch stem, and away goes the watch, leaving the victim only the chain.

This idea stopped that little game:

The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the groove, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

Sold by all watch dealers, without cost, on Jas. Boss Filled and other cases containing this trade mark—
